Construction update February 2024

Works have resumed following the site closure over Christmas.

Pedestrians can walk to St Kilda Road via the footbridge on Level 4 of The Primrose Potter Australian Ballet Centre during the building's opening hours.

The footbridge is currently accessible from 6am to 1am Monday to Saturday, and 9am to 11pm on Sunday.

Pedestrians are prohibited from entering the Sturt/Kavanagh St intersection at any time.

Authorities

From early March, there will be authorities works taking place along Kavanagh Street, Fanning Street, Fawkner Street, Sturt Street and Southbank Boulevard.

These works will be staged along each street to minimise disruption.

What to expect:

- Partial lane closures during work hours
- Vehicle diversions during work hours
- Traffic Management presence to direct vehicles and cyclists during work hours
- Construction noise.

Local residents and businesses who may be impacted by the works will be notified directly by Harris Civil.

Piling at Reimagining Arts Centre Melbourne

As piling continues at the Arts Centre Melbourne site, the pile cap works will begin in the Sturt/Kavanagh Street intersection.

Coordination between our teams will continue to take place to minimise disruption to Arts Centre Melbourne, The Australian Ballet and NGV's operations.

Arts Centre Melbourne's car park will also remain open for business throughout this period.

77 Southbank Boulevard deconstruction

Scaffolding and footpath protection installation is continuing throughout February in the lead up to the structural deconstruction.

During February and March, small cranes will be mobilised on the site as preparation for the deconstruction begins to ramp up.
